

BC Family Doctors is the economic and political voice of family doctors in B.C. Joining our Board of Directors is your opportunity to help make an impact on the future of our profession. We celebrate and encourage diversity, and we are committed to creating an inclusive environment. We invite you to provide any information you are comfortable with sharing on our nomination form to assist us in promoting inclusion.

Composition of the Board

The Board is comprised of:

- (a) Officers (Past President, President, President-Elect, Treasurer);
- (b) Chair of the Board;
- (c) 16 District Delegates;
- (d) First Five Years of Practice Representative;
- (e) Chair of the Economics Committee;
- (f) BC Family Doctors Representative to the Doctors of BC Negotiating Committee; and
- (g) Up to five Directors-at-Large who may be appointed by the Board to augment the skill set and/or diversity of the Board.

Mandate and Culture

The BC Family Doctors Board of Directors represent members' interests, provide a forum for members to discuss issues important to the profession, and oversee the management of BC Family Doctors.

As leaders of BC Family Doctors, Board Directors recognize that how we work is as important as what we do. Board Directors commit to cultivating a culture of:

- ✓ Honesty and transparency through open and ongoing communication.
- ✓ Respect for diversity of opinion and perspective.
- ✓ Working together as a leadership team.
- ✓ Supporting and mentoring each other.
- ✓ Building community and relationships with other Board Directors and family physician colleagues.

Role of the First Five Years in Practice Representative

The primary role of the First Five Years in Practice representative is to act as a Board Director.

Additional responsibilities include:

- ✓ Represent newer in practice physicians and speak to their issues and concerns at the Board level.
- ✓ Act as a liaison and communicate current issues and activities of the organization to family physician colleagues and members in the Delegate's district.
- ✓ Become knowledgeable about BC Family Doctors and the services it provides.
- ✓ Act as an ambassador for the organization.
- ✓ Support membership growth by communicating the value of BC Family Doctors work to family physician colleagues.
- ✓ Participate actively in Board meetings and work effectively with fellow Board Directors to be a positive and constructive influence on the Board.
- ✓ Act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of BC Family Doctors.

- ✓ Avoid potential or actual conflicts of interest that are incompatible with service as a Board Director, in accordance with the Competing Interest Policy.
- ✓ Represent BC Family Doctors at the Doctors of BC Representative Assembly (RA).

Term of Office

The term of office is two years. The First Five Years in Practice representative is nominated and elected at large by the membership.

Logistics and Time Commitment

We anticipate five Board meetings a year, with approximately two meetings in person and the three half-day virtual meetings. We will inform all Board members of the meeting schedule upon confirmation of your position on the Board.

Board representatives are also appointed and expected to attend the three Doctors of BC Representative Assembly meetings each year, if eligible. Doctors of BC sends this information directly to delegates.

Honoraria and Expenses

Honoraria and reimbursement of travel expenses will be provided for all meetings, in accordance with the Honoraria & Expense Policy.
